Kind attention: Nisha Agarwal

Dear Sir / Madam,

Engagement letter: Audit & Assurance

We are pleased to confirm our acceptance of the engagement "Tax audit AY 2026-27" and set out below our understanding of its scope and terms.

Scope of our work

We will audit the financial statements for the period stated in the engagement name and report on them as required by the applicable law and auditing standards. An audit gives reasonable, not absolute, assurance; it is not designed to detect every misstatement or fraud. Management remains responsible for preparing the financial statements and for internal control.

Your responsibilities

You are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of the records and information you give us, for keeping proper books, and for giving us timely access to people and documents. Delays in information may move the timelines agreed below.

Our responsibilities

We will carry out the work with due professional care, in line with the standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India that apply to this kind of engagement. We will keep your information confidential.

Team and timelines

Engagement partner: Arvind Mehta. Engagement manager: Rohan Iyer. Work starts on 01-Apr-2026; we will share a detailed timeline after our first meeting.

Fees

Our professional fee is Rs. 50,000 (FIXED), plus applicable taxes and out-of-pocket expenses at actuals. Invoices are payable within the credit period stated on them.

Acceptance

Please confirm your agreement by signing and returning a copy of this letter, or by accepting it on our client portal.

Yours faithfully,
